Learn from the same NCAA program that produced NBA MVP STEVE NASH!!!

The Santa Clara Broncos have long been associated with producing some of Western Canada's finest basketball talent, from NBA MVP Steve Nash to former Vancouver Island stars Brendan Graves & Steve Ross (both from Lambrick Park HS, Victoria, BC) as well as former WCC MVP Sean Denison (LV Rogers HS, Nelson, BC). This past season former Vancouver College star, Marc Trasolini was a West Coast Conference All-Star for the Broncos.

DON'T MISS THIS TREMENDOUS OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN FROM SANTA CLARA'S DUSTIN KERNS, AT HIS VICTORIA CLINIC, May 25th and 26th.

Santa Clara Mens Basketball Coach, Dustin Kerns

Coach Kerns will be entering his fifth season as the Assistant Mens Basketball Coach at Santa Clara University, where he helped lead the Broncos to one of their most successful seasons in 2010-11, where they finished with 24 victories, second most in school history. Prior to Santa Clara, Kerns spent three years as an assistant coach at Wofford, where he helped the Terriers set a school record for single season wins, including victories over Auburn and Cincinnati. He has also spent time learning from some other top NCAA coaches across the country in his time at Tennessee (with Buzz Peterson), Tennessee Tech (Mike Sutton), and at Clemon University (under Head Coach Larry Shyatt)
